MINERS FAIL TO HEED CALL OF OPERATORS

Not One Man Reports To Western Kentucky Mines.

CLOSED IN APRIL

Operators Had Invited All Employees to Return to Work at Reduction in Wages.

Associated Press.
OWENSBORO, Aug. 25.—Reports received here from several Western Kentucky coal mines which planned to resume operations today on the reduced wage scale indicated that not one man responded when whistles blew.
Three of the mines have been closed since last April.

The miners declared they were offered a forty-two per cent reduction in wages while the operators claimed the scale was virtually that which the Federal government fixed in 1917.

At the Big Black Diamond mine, at Drakesboro, Manager Bridges reported no response to the call.
Similar reports were received from the Mogg and McHenry mines where efforts were made to resume operations.

The Madison Coal company, of Central City, made no efforts to open, it reported, due to repairs which have been under way since before the strike was called.

NO PROSPECTS TO RAISE LUSITANIA

Weight of Sea-Big Handicap to Raising Doomed Vessel, Experts Say.

Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 25.—Chances are that the Lusitania, sunk off the Irish coast by a German torpedo in May, 1915, never will be raised, according to David Masters, author of a book which describes the wonders of salvage.

The sheer weights of the sea, the writer points out, quickly obliterate man's handiwork, and the Lusitania probably ceased to be a ship years ago. It is extremely likely that the tremendous pressure to which she was subjected at the depth of 288 feet long ago crushed her flat, he says.

The liner's 30-ton safe, full of valuables, would be strong enough, one might think, to resist the pressure of the sea; but even the chance of salvaging the safe alone from the liner's strong room do not appear to the writer as being worth the risk.

Scores of schemes have been propounded for salvaging the Lusitania.
An American has proposed to use a submarine which would fire torpedoes through the hull. Each torpedo would carry a steel cable. When sufficient cables had been brought up on the other side, brought to the surface and then reeled lifted from the depths. Experts say this ingenious scheme is simple in theory, but impracticable, and that the Lusitania remains and is likely to remain, where she sank more than nine years ago.

10 KILLED, 9 ARE INJURED IN STORM

Whirlwind "Twister" in New Orleans Takes Heavy Toll Sunday Afternoon.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 25.—Ten persons were killed and nine injured when a twister, demolished the St. Philomena church at Patrick, La., about 40 miles from here at 3:30 this afternoon.

The victims were early arrivals at a church festival which was to be held later in the afternoon.
When the skies became overcast the brewing storm, the crowd took refuge in the old church which was to be abandoned for a new church erected nearby.

The twister left the building a pile of debris with the victims pinned underneath.
The dead: Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Haydel and son, Stephen, Jr.; Arthur Hubbel, Virginia Hubbel, Bel-ford Hubbel, Florence Fernandez, Mildred Trosell and Burk Waggoner.

Jean Finally Joins "Bobs"

Jean Marrey, famous French movie actress, is the latest recruit to the ever growing "bobbed haired army." Jean kept her tresses for a long time, but finally gave way to the barber's scissors. This is her first picture since she had her hair bobbed.

Establishment Bus Depot for Middlesboro Planned

Middlesboro will have a bus depot for the use of the patrons of all bus lines within the next two or three weeks if present plans materialize, according to J. W. Crawford, operator of the Middlesboro-Pennyton line, who is active in promoting the improvement.

The building formerly occupied by the City Barber shop adjoining the Evans-Hammon Motor company will be used for the purpose. It will be fitted up as a waiting room and will serve as a terminal and starting point for buses arriving and leaving Middlesboro.

Present plans are to have a general waiting room in front for men and individual waiting rooms for each farther back. A person or persons will be engaged to stay there and keep the place in good order.

Operators of the various bus lines and business firms establish-and maintain the bus depot. A number of merchants have signified their willingness to contribute regularly to the fund and it is thought that others will come in on the proposition. With a few more dollars to the agreement the actual establishment of the depot will begin.

Schedules for all the buses, which make the depot their headquarters will be posted there so that patrons will know when they can get a bus to any point out of town. The vehicles will be parked on Twentieth and Twenty-first streets from Cumberland to Chesler avenue and on Chester avenue from Twentieth to Twenty-first street while in Middlesboro. Five minutes before they are scheduled to leave Middlesboro they will drive to the front of the depot and take up their passengers.

The following firms and individuals have signified a willingness to contribute to the move and others who have not been interviewed are expected to help: Glanson Bros, Shellbume's, Evans-Hammon, Brown's Store, Green Parrott, Middlesboro Daily News, Middles-boro Hardware company, Dr. E. L.
Camp, A. D. Campbell Store, J.
W. Gillison's store, G. H. Talbot Store, Reams Hardware company, Dr. H. E. Mott, Lee's Drug Store, Citizen's Bank, White Star Store and the Mammoth Garage.

Operators of the following bus lines have agreed to cooperate in the matter: Middlesboro-Pennyton line which goes via Rose Hill and Jonesville; Blue Goose, Middles-boro to Corbin; Middlesboro-La-Follette, Middlesboro-Tazewell and Middlesboro-Knoxville. A few of the bus operators have not been interviewed on the subject.

DARROW QUOTES FROM ST. PAUL

Defense Loeb and Leopold Claims They Are Still But Children.

Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Character analysis based upon heredity and environment, was the theme Clarence Darrow today has pleaded before Judge Caverly for the lives of Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, kidnappers and slayers of Robert Frank.

The "weird mad act" was mentioned only incidentally as the veteran of the American bar went back of the crime itself, tracing from childhood the influences which surrounded his clients.
Loeb he described as an intellectual machine running without governors and without balance of emotional life. Darrow quoted St.
Paul's epistle: "When I was a child I saw as a child, I thought as a child, but when I became a man I put away childish things," in defending the youths whom he declared are still children.

Nationalists Dis- prove Reparation

Associated Press.
BERLIN, Aug. 25.—Doctor Hergt, leader of the Nationalistic party disapproves of the reparations agreement reached at the international conference at London and said he would oppose bills designed to put it into effect.

New City Code Con- tains License List

The code of the city of Middles-boro, revised to May 1, 1924, has been printed and sent to the city hall. One hundred copies of the book were published and these are available for the use of the city, attorneys or other interested parties.

In addition to all city penal ordinances now in force, the book contains a list showing the amount of license each business or profession is required to pay.

Lee's Designated As School Book Agency

The board of education of the city of Middlesboro and that of Bell county have recently appointed Lee's Drug store to handle the regular adopted school text books this year. Frank L. Lee, proprietor, says he will use every effort to supply all books needed in Mid-dlesboro and vicinity.

RURAL ROUTE FOR NOETOWN BEGINS SOON

Covers 13 Miles, Will Serve 1,500 Patrons.

BOXES NECESSARY

Motor Vehicle Service for Three Days Per Week, Says the Postmaster, Begins
October 15.

Establishment of a rural postal delivery route to Noetown to begin October 15, is announced by Postmaster John M. Miller today.
The route which will be thirteen miles in length will serve 1,500 people. Delivery will be made three days per week.

The Postal Department specifies that at least 250 families must put up boxes along the proposed route before it begins. This number must promise in writing to put up boxes conforming to the regulations of the Postal Department and blankets will probably be provided for the purpose. At present, any one wishing to sign is requested to do so at the postoffice.

The route begins at Twenty-sixth street and goes from there to the Junction serving the patrons along the way. The carrier will then retrace, beginning at Twenty-second street and Cumberland avenue and going to Noetown, serving all patrons along the route and then returning to the postoffice.

Delivery will be made in a motor vehicle and all parcels as well as other classes of mail matter will be carried. Mr. Miller stated that the deliveries would be made on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

An examination will be held, the exact date to be announced later, for a carrier for the new route.

Announcement of the new rural delivery service within the city will be hailed with delight by hundreds of residents of Noetown, who are now compelled to come to the Mid-dlesboro postoffice for their mail.
The citizens have long been desirous of such a service there and discussed the proposition of trying to get a branch postoffice when it was thought impossible to get an extension in the city service.

The improvement is yet contin-gent on the required number of patrons putting up boxes but, in view of the fact that the delivery will save them a long trip to town, it is thought that at least 250 families will be glad to provide the boxes. The postoffice can supply information regarding the type of boxes to be bought and the manner in which they are to be set up.

This is one of the many improvements that Postmaster Miller and his assistant, R. P. Hutcheson, have secured for local patrons during the past year. To get the approval of the Postal Department a mass of detailed data covering every phase of the proposed extension was necessary.

T. B. DECREASING IN 25 COUNTRIES

Death Rate in Japan and Germany Is Mounting—Decrease in Other Places.

Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Reports from 23 countries representing one-third of the population of the world compiled by G. J. Drolet, statistician of the New York Tuberculosis Association, indicate that in the last 43 years more than 18,000,000 people have died from pulmonary tuberculosis according to a statement issued today by the association.

In practically all of the countries studied the death rate from tuberculosis is declining with the exception of Japan where there is marked increase. The central European countries showed an increase during the war, but so far as figures are available since the war there has been a decline. At the present time, however, the death rate in Germany seems again to be mounting.

In the United States the death rate from tuberculosis has steadily fallen from nearly 300 in 1880 to 97 for each 100,000 of population in 1922.

OFFICERS WOUNDED

Attempted to Arrest Negro

PAINTSVILLE, Aug. 25.— While attempting to arrest an unknown negro, alleged mur-derer of Nelson Hampton, at Prestonsburg yesterday, Joe Castle and Jim Pack, deputies, were wounded today in a pistol battle. The officers found the negro on top of a box car and opened fire. The negro was wounded also in the fight.

BALL PARK FOR FALL FESTIVAL

City Grants Request Merchants' Association—Number Street Contentions.

The city commission granted a permit to the Merchants' Association today to have the Harvest Festival on the city athletic park, in the East End. This was with the provision that the board of education does not object to such use and that the place be not damaged in any way.

Property owners of Twenty-fifth street from Dorchester to Cumberland avenue requested that the section of street along their property be merely repaired and not rebuilt.
They stated its present condition did not require it to be thoroughly rebuilt. The matter will be investigated.

Property owners of a section of Greenwood road requested in writing a concrete sidewalk on their section of the street. Other property owners along the street were present and declared they preferred a concrete sidewalk. The matter was deferred until the next meeting.

Permit was granted the Middles-boro Medicine company to put in a gasoline tank for a filling station at the corner of East Cumberland avenue and Fitzpatrick avenue, provided the tank is buried.

London Smilling asked the city to purchase 2,000 copies of a new book which he proposes to have published giving a historical, and geographical and general sketch of Middlesboro and containing views of the town. He stated that the plan had the full sanction of the major who was not present at the meeting.

Commissioner J. E.
Evans, acting mayor, stated that the matter would be considered after the support of the business men had been obtained.

Permit was granted to Sam Weinstein to erect two houses, costing from $4,000 to $5,000, on Englewood road.

CAPTURES THIRD STILL IN WEEK

Dead Bugs In Mash Taken With Distilling Outfit Over the Week End.

Constable J. A. Thompson and deputies captured the third still in the past week, near Hignite over the week-end.
A complete distilling outfit, including a steel, fifty-five gallon tank were taken and destroyed.
One hundred gallons of mash were also taken. The still, which had evidently been used for some time, had recently been moved to the new location and a new furnace had been built.

Some of the mash was brought to town this morning and exhibited by Constable Thompson. It was made of mixed horse feed and sugar. Though it contained a few dead bugs, it was cleaner than the average, according to the officer.

No arrests were made, the operator evidently knowing that the officer was near. The latter and his deputies waited for some time in the hollow shore Hignite, near the location of the still but the moonshiners did not appear.

BOLSHEVIST GROWTH DUE TO SCHOOLS

Charge Made by Leaders in Capital of France.

BAN MARSEILLAISE

Claim That School Children Are Getting Wrong Conception of Patriotism in the School.

Associated Press.
PARIS, Aug. 25.—The spread of Bolshevism in France is beginning to attract the attention of political leaders and government authorities.

The eventuality of a dangerous growth of communism in this country always has been regarded as very remote because of the natural conservative tendency of the farming element, which outnumbers the laboring class. Lately, however, evidence have been discovered that the Bolshevik virus has penetrated the peasantry, thought until now to be proof against all subversive doctrine.
This outcome is attributed to the influence of school teachers, who are drifting more and more toward extreme radicalism.

An example was furnished the other day a monument to the school teachers killed on the battlefield was to be inaugurated in the department of Morbihan. The school teachers association of the department decided by a large majority that the inauguration should not be allowed to take place unless the inscription, "To the School Teachers Who Fell on the Field of Battle," was changed to
"To the Victims of the War." They also demanded that there be no mention of France or the "fatherland" in any speeches, and that the Marseillaise be neither played nor sung.

The unsuspectedly large proportion of the teachers of that department won to Bolshevism has started an inquiry into the state of mind of teachers generally, and one functionary of the department of education said the communists were certainly in the majority by a considerable margin.

In some departments teachers have prepared their own texts for dictation to pupils in which they have carefully cut out everything that in the regular text books smacks of patriotism or history.
Even the word "international" is becoming unpopular with these extremists because of the last three syllables.

The fight between classes is the prevailing sentiment in the examples of these improvised text books that have come to the notice of the authorities. How to deal with the situation is a hard problem. The present government is inclined to the greatest leniency in such matters, and the school teachers' influence in rural districts is such that there are no means of combating him on his own ground.

The Communists took 800,000 votes from the Socialists in the recent elections, and the coalition of the latter with the Radicals is expected to drive a great many more toward Bolshevism before another election is held. In this the school teachers' influence is not felt but it is thought that the present generation of country school children will, if there is not a reaction in the meantime, swell the communist ranks immensely when it comes of voting age.

Produce Helium Gas In S. D. Black Hills

Associated Press.
DEADWOOD, S. D., Aug. 25.— Foothills of the Black Hills of South Dakota are offering the latest hope that a supply of helium gas is available near here for use of the war and navy departments in furthering experiments with lighter than air craft. This discovery was made by Dr. Dorsey Lyons, assistant director of the federal bureau of mines, while investigating the possibility of treating "blue ore" cheaply enough so that their valuable metals may be extracted at a profit.

ciet leader, is a prominent member of the prince's entourage.

WOMAN WINS IN GOVERNOR'S RACE

Mrs. Ferguson, Texas, Wins Over Klan Opponent in Primary Election.

Associated Press.
DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 25.—Mrs.
Miriam Ferguson, the first woman candidate for governor of Texas, and wife of James E. Ferguson, former governor, was nominated at the democratic primary Saturday over Felix Robertson of Dallas.

The Texas election bureau tabulation of the vote last night showed Mrs. Ferguson leading by about 77,000 and more than 725,000 ballots counted. The bureau estimated the total vote would be close to 850,000. Reports last night show it was heavier than at any previous election ever held in Texas.

Heretofore democratic nomination in Texas has been considered equivalent to election.
A large part of the democratic party tried today to figure out how it happened that Mrs. Ferguson was nominated. Her supporters were jubilant. Her opponents mourned. All speculated more or less on whether Texas politics will run to form and the democratic nominee will be elected in November without much further effort and trouble.

Mrs. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, who conducted her campaign, regarded the results of the primary as a big step forward in their fight for vindication of Mr. Ferguson, who was impeached when he was governor. They said they were in the campaign only because of that judgment and because they sought to clear their name for themselves, their children and grandchildren.

Questions in the minds of politicians today were what will the Ku Klux Klan do now. The issues in the gubernatorial race decided yesterday was clearly Klan and anti-Klan, each side making a supreme effort to muster maximum strength and control Texas democratic politics. The anti Klan was a question today was whether an independent candidate will be put in the race for governor before November and try to draw the vote of the Klan and of democrats who may not be entirely satisfied. The Republicans declare they will make an effort to capture the dissatisfied democrats.

GOV. FIELDS OPENS ROADS CAMPAIGN

Will Speak in Eastern Kentucky Towns This Week and Next.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 25.— Gov. William J. Fields will open his campaign in behalf of the $75,000, 000 Bond Issue with six speeches in eastern Kentucky towns and one at Williamson, W. Va., this week, it is announced through the Kentucky Good Roads association. His schedule follows:

Somerset, afternoon, August 26; Williamson, afternoon and Pikeville night, August 28; Prestonsburg, afternoon, and Paintsville, night, August 29; Louisa, afternoon, and Blain, night August 30; Carlisle, afternoon September 1.
The speaking at Pikeville and Williamson is to be made at an interstate celebration at the opening

ITALIAN FLIER IS RESCUED BY AMERICAN SHIP

Picked Up Near Cape Farewell, Greenland.

FLIGHT IS GIVEN UP

Unable to Raise Air Craft From Water, It Was Destroyed—Flew From Pisa to Iceland.

Associated Press.
AHOARD CRUISER RICH-MOND, EAST OF CAPE FAR-WELL, Greenland, Aug. 25.—The cruiser, Richmond, rescued Lieutenant Locatelli, missing Italian airman at 11:35 o'clock last night.
He was picked up 125 miles east of Cape Farewell.

The Italian aviator and his companion were uninjured although they were worn by fatigue. Motor trouble forced Locatelli to alight on the water during the flight Thursday from Reykjavik.

He was unable to bring the plane into the air again after it had drifted 100 miles. Locatelli requested that the plane be destroyed and his wish was complied with.

Locatelli's unsuccessful attempt to accomplish with the American fliers the hazardous journey over the North Atlantic followed his successful solitary flight from Pisa Italy, to Iceland.

PACKING FIRM IN HANDS RECEIVER

Wilson and Company, Large Meat Packers, Forced Into Bankruptcy by Stockholders.

Associated Press.
TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 25.— Wilson & Co., Incorporated, one of the large packing establishments, has been placed in the hands of the receiver on the complaint of Maurice Klein, of Newark, vice chancellor. John Buckles has temporarily named the state bank commissioner, Maxson, receiver for the company.

In a lengthy complaint attached to the involuntary charge Klein alleged that the big packing company was indebted to various banking concerns nearly $500,000 and has a funded debt outstanding of $17,177,000. King claims he is the holder of twenty-five shares of stock and contends that in at least two recent instances where interest fell due on the company's stocks and bonds the defendant had no cash to pay the stockholders.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Wilson and Co., Chicago Packers, will contest the receivership proceedings begun at Trenton, President Thomas Wilson announced in a telegram to his office today. He is in New York City.

OFFER FUNDS FOR MALARIA CONTROL

Rockefeller Foundation Agrees to Continue to Furnish Half the Expense.

Associated Press.
MANILA, Aug. 25.—The Rockefeller Foundation has agreed to continue to supply one-half of the expenditures incurred in the campaign for the control of malaria in the Philippine Islands, undertaken jointly about two years ago by it and the Philippine health department, according to an announce-

ROBBER CAUGHT

HARLAN, Aug. 25.—Discovered coming out of the Harlan Drug store vault with a large amount of money, Henry Pennington, negro, escaped but his liberty was short lived. He was arrested at Georgetown later. When Robert Mitchell, druggist, saw the negro coming out of the vault and asked him what he was doing the latter answered that he "was looking for the boss man." The clerk made a grab for the negro but was unsuccessful.

BURGLARIES BEWILDERING

PINEVILLE, Aug. 25.—Pineville has fallen a victim of the burglary epidemic which has been sweeping Middlesboro and other places of this section. Ten dollars has been stolen from the home of Jim Phillips and the home of Dr. J. M. Brooks was looted of jewelry. At the latter home, the intruders locked up their dog in the room by mistake.

SCHOOLS CROWDED

POOR FORK, Aug. 25.—An enrollment of 437 pupils at the Poor Fork schools, with an average attendance of 348, emphasizes the need for larger quarters. Plans for providing an additional room and an extra teacher are being discussed. The county has promised to meet half the expense.

OIL TANK BURNS

PAINTSVILLE, Aug. 25.—Fire, caused by lightning, destroyed a 55,000 barrel crude oil storage tank of the Cumberland Pipe Line Company located at Leander. At the present market value of oil, the loss resulting from the destruction of the tank and its contents was estimated at $90,750.

HENDERSON MINES OPEN

HENDERSON, Aug. 25.—Thirty men are working at the Southland Coal Mine No. 1, opened after being closed since April 15. Only 30 men could be used because the mine will only work one section for the present. Officials say that all the men needed are available at the

FATAL FORTY CENTS

KINGSTON, Aug. 25.—Jim Rowan, Harriman negro, found guilty of voluntary manslaughter in circuit court here, has been sentenced to serve from two to five years in prison. He was charged with killing Jim Taylor, colored, last December, the trouble originating over a debt of forty cents.

PROBE ELECTION

TAZEWELL, Aug. 25.—Alleged election frauds will be probed here at the session of the Claiborne county grand jury which convenes next Thursday. Deferred cases, on both the civil and criminal dockets are set for this session of court.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZE

ROCKWOOD, Tenn., Aug. 25.—A merchants' association has been organized here under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. The organization is for the purpose of securing better co-operation among the merchants, attending to legislative matters pertaining to the mercantile business and for the bettering of local retail conditions. It is for the small as well as the large merchant and every man engaged in any retail business is invited to come out tomorrow night and hear more about the aims and purposes of the association.

PAGE PIED PIPER

MORRISTOWN, Aug. 25.—The city is now in the midst of a rat-killing campaign, no less a personage than Mayor C. D. Thoroughgood having designated this period for execution of pesky rodents. Cash prizes to the amount of $25 for the first, second and third number of rat tails are being offered.

LIQUOR SEIZED

BRISTOL, Aug. 25.—Fluid considerably stronger than that ordinarily dispensed by the water company was seized at the filtration plant here. Officers say that Robert Fry, manager of the plant, Burley Fry and Fred Cloyd were bottling whiskey there. The trio were arrested and fifty-eight gallons of whiskey were seized.

FAMILY REUNION

CAVE CREEK, Aug. 25.—Congressman J. Will Taylor, second district, is expected to attend the reunion of the Harvey family which will take place here September 14. Preparations are being made to entertain 300. There are twenty-five Harvey families in Knoxville and many members of them are expected to attend. Six hundred attended the reunion last year.

VIRGINIA

GOVERNOR ADDRESSES FAIR

ABINGTON, Va., Aug. 25.—Governor E. Lee Trinkle, of Virginia, made an address at the Abington fair Friday afternoon. Governor and Mrs. Trinkle returned to their home at Wytheville where they will remain several days before returning to Richmond.

ECONOMY IN BIRTHDAY CAKE

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 25.—What is believed to be a unique record in the matter of birthday celebrations is claimed by the family of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Goodman, of Berkeley, just across the Elizabeth river from Norfolk. A few days ago Irving, aged eight; Fannie, aged six, and Sidney, aged four, held a birthday party, an annual event for the past three years. The children were born two years apart, on the same day of the month and practically at the same hour. There are two older children in the family.

Ah, girls, the Prince of Wales is a regular beach sheik. But there isn't much chance of you getting to see him at any of America's popular sea-side resorts. He will do most of his swimming in the pool on James A. Burden's estate at Syosett, L. I. The prince you see, will be a guest there during the polo games. The artist has inset a picture of His Highness over a picture of the pool, showing how the prince will look emerging from his morning plunge.

ent Washington's Revolutionary army, hurried nearly a century and a half ago near his camp site which now is a part of Berkeley, a Norfolk suburb, were unearthed several days ago in the yard of a citizen of that place. The bones were examined by laborers in digging for a sewer line. Buttons of copper or bronze and other time-worn objects indicated two of the men had been officers and the bones of one showed he must have been well over six feet in height.

DANVILLE GRID BEING LINED UP

Candidates for Eleven This Year to Make Appearance in September.

Associated Press

DANVILLE, Ky., Aug. 25.—More than enough aridition veterans to make a complete team are expected to be in football togs when first practice starts at Center College. Aspiring candidates for the 1921 eleven make their initial appearance of the season on September 10, the date set by Coach Robert L. Myers for all candidates for the football team to report and begin light workouts. Within a week the grid will begin with intensive practice for the opening game at Danville with Valparaiso University October 4.

A dozen players, all juniors and seniors, having one or more years of pluckin' experience behind them, already have assured Coach Myers they are after regular berths on this year's team. Among these men are the following seniors: Covington, Mayfield, quarterback; Gordy, Abbeville, fullback; Lamon, Chicago, end; Lynch, Amarillo, Texas, tackle; Rubarth, Gatesville, Texas, guard, and Kibala, Fort Smith, Ark., center.

Those players who made names for themselves last year and still have two years at college include: Thomasson, Newport, end; Imbierstein, Cincinnati, halfback; Skidmore, Harlan, tackle; Gleim, Cleveland, guard; Hilker, Cincinnati, guard and Wallace, New York, half back.

LURE OF TURF IS MORE THAN RING

State Loses Coming Boxer When McAuliffe Forsakes the Ring For Racing.

Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 25.—Less than a year ago Louisville boxing fans were watching the progress of a young local product, Danie McAuliffe. The lad was a preliminary boy and usually entered the ring at 105 pounds, a flyweight.

McAuliffe was spoken of as a "corner." He appeared in nine or ten bouts here and each time made a better impression. He did not always get the decision, and on one occasion was knocked out, but according to the fans, he always fought.

A little later his name disappeared from the fight cards and he was heard of next in Churchill Downs. Danie had decided that the turf held out a greater future for him than did the squared ring, and at the famous Downs he received his first training as jockey. Today McAuliffe is one of the outstanding riders on the Kentucky turf, and with a record of 70 places in 120 starts at the recent meet at Raceland, near Ashland, Ky., he is ranked as one of the leading jockeys of the country. On one day of the Raceland met he rode in all seven races, won four of them, placed in two and finished third in the other. Two days later he won four, was second once and third once in six races. In the 120 races he had a leg up, he finished first in 35, placed in 19 and showed in 16. The young jockey is 21 years old and his answer for his success is: "If you want to do a thing and try hard enough, you are sure to do it."

DEMON RUM IS STILL RAMPANT

Free State Suffers From Orgy of Drunkenness—Abstinence Society Meets.

Associated Press

DUBLIN, Aug. 25.—Ten thousand persons from all parts of Ireland participated in the recent celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association. A dozen bands and 500 clergymen marched in their procession, which took 45 minutes to pass a given point.

A monster mass meeting was presided over by the Rev. J. Flynn, S. J., and addressed by the Rev. P. J. Gannon, S. J., who deplored the general return of drunkenness in Ireland within the last six years, and urged the support of a bill introduced in the Dail to check the abuses of liquor. He said the bill is encountering the opposition of the "vast vested interests which depend for their profits on our most notorious national weakness." He urged the 250,000 members of the organization, most of whom are voters, to support the effort to bring the membership up to 1,000,000 voters and said 40 new centers of the total abstinence organization have been added since Christmas.

The Most Reverend Dr. Gaughran, Bishop of Meath, also addressed the meeting. He rejoiced in the fact that Ireland's political clouds are fast disappearing. "Irishmen are today rulers in their own country," he declared, "but of what permanent advantage is that if the demon of drink continues its ravages?"

A resolution was passed demanding the enactment of temperance reform measures by the Dail and the meeting concluded with the Pail blessing.

BEAR'S PARADISE IN LONELY RANGE

Beautiful Lake Is Attraction to Be Found In Secluded Sylvan Glen In California.

Associated Press

ETNA FALLS, Cal., Aug. 25.—Reports crediting all sorts of strange things to a "lost valley" in the Siskiyou mountains, on the northern boundary of California, led Dr. Paul Cadman, Dr. Warner Hayt and Harvey Miller, of Berkeley, to explore the region. They found the valley, a beautiful little there was nothing more startling than the number and size of the bear tracks.

The three men went by motor as could, then took horses into the wild and rugged Carillon and Sawtooth ranges. The hidden valley lies between the head waters of the Trinity and Salmon rivers. Some distance before reaching it they had to leave their horses and make their way on foot. There was no trail into the valley, which is protected by sheer peaks at the head of Thompson's Creek.

The explorers found a clear gem-like glacial lake at the upper end of the chasm, with a lush green meadow at the lower end. There was a multitude of the mud wallows sometimes called "beaver bottoms." Aside from the celebration of bear tracks, there was little to distinguish the valley from others in the Sawtooths. It is a country of glacial lakes and waterfalls of vast heights.

In view of the fact, however, that Tolstol lived in a period of bourgeois culture, and that the great ideas of our unforgettable Illyich (Lenin) were unknown to him, the court concedes ameliorating circumstances to him and decides upon: (1) The removal of his most dangerous works from the libraries. (2) The hearing into pulp of these books. (3) Using the pulp for publishing the works of Lenin, Zinoviev, Bukharin, and other leaders of the world revolution."

FINE CLOTHING SPLENDID ASSET

Helped Laborer to Rent Apartment In Aristocratic Section of Madrid.

Associated Press

MADRID, Aug. 25.—Six laboring families have found a way to overcome the lack of housing accommodations for poor people in Madrid. They formed themselves into a co-operative society, which sent a representative dressed in his Sunday clothes to rent a flat on the Gran Via, the central street of Madrid, priced at 500 pesetas monthly. The house owner was glad to find a tenant and at once drafted the contract, which both parties signed.

The next day, to the horror of the other tenants who are chiefly professional men, six hand trucks loaded with dilapidated furniture, drew up to the apartment. They were accompanied by a crowd of men, women and children, who shocked the door attendant by proclaiming themselves the new tenants.

The landlord endeavored to obtain an ejectment order, but the judge sustained the rights of the laboring families to their new home.

U. T. C. Comes Back, Winning Two Games

Stinging from their defeat by the Big Ben Blues Saturday evening, the U. T. C. staged a comeback Sunday afternoon at the East End Ball park when they defeated the Southern Railway team with a score of 10-5. In one of the best games this season. This is the first time the Southern boys have tasted defeat.

The Southern Railway team claims that they were really playing the Middlesboro Boosters instead of the tannery team. They say that there were six Booster players on the U. T. C. team.

Berkley and Souders were pitcher and catcher for the Southern, while Luster and Hurst performed that part for the U. T. C.

The U. T. C. team then played the Straight Creek team, defeating it by a score of 10-3, which was another good game. The large crowd which attended the games seemed to enjoy the playing very much.

RURAL EVENING

The whip cracks on the plough team's flank,
The thresher's flail beats drier,
The round of day has warmed a bank

Of clouds to primrose colour,
The dairy girls cry home the kine,
The kine in answer lowing;
The rough-haired louts with sleepy slouts

Keep crows whence seed is growing,
The creaking wain, brushed through the lane, Hangs straws on hedges narrow;
And smoothly cleaves the soughing plough,

And harsher grinds the harrow, Comes, from the roadside lun caught up,

A brawl of crowded laughter, Through falling brooks and cawing rooks

And a fiddle scrambling after.

OLD PAPER TELLS CIVIL WAR VALOR

Skirmish Referred to Took Place in Lee County, Va.—Published in 1905.

WASHINGTON, Ky., Aug. 25.—An old yellowed newspaper clipping bearing the date 1905 bearing the story of an engagement of the Civil War is the prized possession of Frank Yates, sales manager of the Park Hill Realty Company. Mr. Yates preserves this among his papers in a safety deposit box of the Ashland National Bank. This clipping tells of one of the war experiences of J. W. Yates, Frank Yates' father who is now living at the family home in Park Hill. The engagement took place at Lee county, Va. The account of the battle, as told by Mr. Yates, was published in the Big Sandy News on January 13, 1905.

"On the second day of January 1863, it grew cold and was said to be the coldest night ever known in that section. We marched all night from Eastern Tennessee and crossed Clinch river and came in sight of the enemy at daylight. We were ordered to halt and prepare for a charge.

"They fought like Turks but began falling back toward a squad that had a battery. The first five companies charged the battery and captured it but it was recaptured from our men. We could see our men running in every direction.

"We formed again in the open field under fire of grape and canister and marched through an open field with them playing on us with four guns as we went. In a few minutes I saw them start and march in front of my company to make the charge. I ordered my company to fire and what we didn't kill jumped off their horses and ran.

"There was a wheat stack on the point where they surrendered. A great many of them had taken the cylinders out of their revolvers and hid them in the stack. I was standing there looking on while they surrendered and a Yankee soldier stepped up to me and said: 'I want to make you a present of my revolver.' We then marched them down the hill.

"I write this for my old companions who were in the same regiment and who will remember it well."

One of the members of this regiment is living in Ashland at this time, Captain J. M. Ferguson, who is a firm friend of Mr. Yates. Captain Ferguson is the father of Mr. Pollock.

Judges Couldn't Decide

They held a contest in Kansas City, Mo., the other day to determine which were prettier—girls with long hair or girls with bobbed tresses. But when it narrowed down to these two, Nettle Gray (left) and Marguerite Jordan, the judges couldn't decide which was the cozier.

Beau Brummel Interesting Example Masculine Vanity

Vanity, all is Vanity!

And the philosopher included man as well as woman in this category when he said—ALL!

There are two things worth remarking in this little compendium of pessimism which old Solomon retailed to the world after he had a thousand wives! Where did he get the extra fling, you want to know? The answer to that is found in Kipling. It's another story.

The two things are: 1. That everything is vanity. 2. That man is just as vain as any woman.

If we believe the first, we might just as well give up the ship at once, and call on the undertaker for specifications and costs.

Now if we believe in No. 2, we are immediately ushered into the realm of the male dandy. You think there ain't no such animals.

If so, you make the greatest mistake in your life. Every man alive is a dandy—a dandy, let me insist to add in careful disguise. So carefully disguised, in fact, that not even the man himself knows about it.

The male is decorative, we find in biology. Male birds wear their mates with brilliant foliage and vivid stripes and color are found in animals to give the mating season a high percentage. Men have always turned to clothes for the purpose of making themselves attractive to women. The fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries were resplendent with flamboyantly clothed men, vying with peacocks in colors, and having all sorts of shapes.

With the coming of the industrial age, man suddenly became practical and drab, in response to utilitarian ideas. His color grew monotonous, he took to blues, browns and blacks. He began to be ashamed of himself for wanting to dress vividly. He pruned wherever he could, till he came to two pieces of apparel—trousers and socks. For a time it seemed as if they, too, would go the way of all colors. But the worm turned.

The male refused to give away his all. These conventions permitted to vary and vie with the rainbow, the only proviso being that magnets were to be subject to perpetual and relentless kidding on the part of friends and acquaintances.

Beau Nash was the first of the dandies in the great tradition, an exemplary character whose long and magnificent reign as 'king of Bath' was a war against social snobbery. In the famous balls at the Pump Room, if he noticed any snubbing of the high born toward those in a lower social station, he never hesitated to rebuke the guilty.

More than once he rescued the heiresses from the clutches of undesirable men. His influence on English social life was considerable.

Next in line comes the Frenchman, Alfred d'Orsay. He was both a dresser and a wit. After accepting a challenge to a duel, he deliberated and then decided not to fight. "It is unfair," he explained. "If I wounded him on the face, it would be nothing; but if he wounded me, the world would be the loser."

Beau Brummel

But Beau Brummel, in plumage as brilliant-hued as Joseph's proverbial coat, outshone even the resplendent Nash and the dapper Frenchman.

With the gesture grand that brooked no argument and cowed the noblemen of England, yea, the very Prince of Wales, Beau Brummel wielded a wicked tongue and walked in insolent haughtiness, giving here a condescending nod, there a mocking glance.

Without the background of rank or money, George Bryan Brummel surmounts his lowly origin and with only the dandyism par excellence, he quickly becomes the fashion and holds sway as the first gentleman of Europe.

For an approving smile from this exquisite, no effort was too great. Would he beauty? It was his offered lavishly by the fairest of the sex. Perhaps a humble devotion? So bounteous the supply, it wearied him. Mayhap the favor of the first lady of the land? It pleased him for a day.

Capricious, vain as the preening peacock—yei withal the fascinating lover, who demands your grudging admiration and envy.

"What? The pre-sumptuous merchants levying an exorbitant tax on coiffeur powder? Dogs! They shall keep their powder! I shall wear my hair undressed! Jean, Henri, Gaston, we shall put them in their place. My hair a little curled at the temples, a noble wave over the forehead and a coiffeur to make them stop and rave.

So Jean dressed his top hair, Henri the temples, while Gaston, with the appraising eye of the artist, put the finishing touches to the whole thing and the tout ensemble broke the camel's back and set the clock for 'The Beau Brummel coil' fear."

Gazing at his reflection in a long cheval glass was a very intriguing pastime for the Beau whose approval or disapproval lifted many an embryo dandy to the heights of bliss or thrust him down in the crawling misery of despair.

"I lay my heart in the hollow of your little hand," the irresistible Beau would whisper and forthwith kiss the palm of his heart's desire, while ecstasy filled the bosom of his beloved.
